

Martin Alan Quick

November 26, 1951 — May 23, 2024

Martin Quick, beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, passed away on May 23, 2024, at the age of 72. Born on November 26, 1951, Marty's journey was one of service, passion, and unwavering dedication to those he loved and the causes he believed in.

Marty's early years were marked by a commitment to excellence, evident in his education at the Air Force Academy, where he honed his skills and embraced the values of discipline and integrity. Following his graduation, Marty embarked on a distinguished career in the United States Air Force, where he served with honor as a helicopter pilot.

After his time in the military, Marty pursued his passion for aviation, becoming a commercial airline pilot for multiple prestigious airlines. His love for flying allowed him to soar to new heights, touching the lives of countless passengers and crew.

Marty was not only a man of the skies but a man of many talents and passions. Marty was a scholar, earning a master's degree in Engineering from the University of Arkansas, a testament to his intellectual curiosity and thirst for knowledge. He found solace and joy in restoring muscle cars, particularly Mustangs, pouring his heart and soul into each project with meticulous attention to detail. His craftsmanship and love for classic automobiles were evident in every masterpiece he created. Furthermore, Marty's talents extended to the realm of construction, where he found fulfillment in building houses and obtaining a contractor's license. His hands helped craft homes that would shelter families and serve as the foundation for cherished memories for years to come.

Above all else, Marty's greatest legacy lies in the lives he touched and the hearts he inspired. As a loving husband, father, and brother, he cherished his family above all else, showering them with unconditional love and support. His role as a mentor to many, whether in his professional endeavors or personal pursuits, left an indelible mark on all who had the privilege of knowing him.
