

Obituary Johann Radcliffe

Johann Radcliffe, beloved husband, uncle, and cat daddy, passed away peacefully on May 15, 2024, at the age of 72. He was born on November 13, 1951, in Egglkofen, Germany to John and Maria Radcliffe.

Johann grew up in a very loving military family that lived in villages in Germany including Garmisch, Heidelberg, Stuttgart, and Ludwigsburg and in Maryland in the Chesapeake Bay area. The moves during his youth allowed him to see much of Europe, fish and crab with his dad and friends on the bay and play sports on military posts and public schools, becoming an outstanding student and athlete.

Johann was appointed to the United States Air Force Academy on a lacrosse scholarship following his 1969 graduation from Sparrow Point High School in Maryland. He played on the USAFA Junior Varsity lacrosse team, but suffered a concussion that ended his college play. He graduated from the Academy in 1973 with a Bachelor's Degree in Engineering Systems. During the five years following graduation, Johann was stationed in San Bernadino, Hawaii, and New Jersey and earned a Master's Degree in Information Systems Management from the University of Southern California.

Following his Air Force service, Johann lived in California, Hawaii, Ohio, North Carolina and finally settled down in Greenville, South Carolina. While living in Greenville, Johann had various jobs that took him all over the world for work. His last overseas assignment was in the Middle East, living in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia and Muscat, Oman for almost 5 years.

Johann loved sports, fishing, reading, traveling and playing fantasy football during the NFL seasons.

Johann was married to Karen Corley for 20 of the 23 years they were together. While he nor Karen have children, Johann has been an animal daddy to two Alaskan Malamutes, Kodi and Kadi, who greeted him at heaven's door, and three rescue cats, Bobbi, Lily, and Louie, who remain in the home with Karen.
