EDITORIAL:

Dixie Randolphe was the one picked to be the next CINCDODO. That is, until he came down with a cancer of the Lymphe glands. His neck is marked with a scar that prevents his buttoning his shirt. Here's his letter:

".... It all started when..Well, I was sitting in the Academy Hosp, my last Saturday at USAFA and about 10 min. before the car came to get me this officer-type came up to me and gave me some crap about my collar not being fastened. Up until then I'd been feeling bad about everybody being so great about helping me pack, etc. and was even to the point of repenting my evil ways as a Cadet and it really helped me leave w/ a better attitude. Knowing I was catching ~~up~~ up to end."

ABOUT THE COVER:

After a suspenseful wait of only five (5) (VI) years, the DYNAMIC DO-NUT MACHINE HAS arrived. Cranking out 72 dozen an hour, it is rumored to have swallowed a waiter. Pictured at left is the method for cutting the all-important-holes-for-which-it-would-not-be-a-a-do-nut-with-out. This inefficient method explains why we only have Do-nuts at lunch and (&) Dinner.

DAMN CRACK MENACES 4,000

USAFA Yes, it's true! Your Dorm is spreading. Age is setting in. That is Jack, (on the crack) buffing as normal. After all a SAMI is coming ~~soon~~. This crack has streaked all through the Old Dorm bringing looks of worrisome to all. Something must be done! Any suggestions as to how to fill this crack, should be sent to Jack Hembrough, CS-12.

DoDo Staffers eye massive effort underway to pave the South Parking(?) Lot. ??????????

ATTN ALL BCT TYPES:

This is an actual reprint of a letter sent by a Classof
'75 member to a 74er whom he met only briefly X-mas. Here's to an endless summer of Bubble Bursting...

Hi Ed,

I hope you remember me (CAP, Oakland, 2 December deals).
Anyway, I really didn't have the slightest worry. Now that it's over I sure am relieved.
Since December and 2nd alternate, I have recieved the one principal and the one vice-presidential nomination to the Academy. I was so unbeleivably qualified and motivated that they gave it to me as of 23 March 1971. They were really impressed with me & wanted me to attend. (Although I think my coach had something to do with it.) But anyway, I signed the contracts and will recieve the processing Kit in a few weeks. I also caught the ski bug so I'll be pretty good when I get there.
I think I'm about as prepared as you can get. I just wanted to let you know since I was really impressed by you and your enthusiasim & the help you gave me. I hope to see you as soon as I can and that we can become good friends without the superiority bit.
Just friends. Thanks again for your help.

She Was Raped

I am writing you because you have the reputation of being a crusader for good causes and the scourge of evil. There is a situation in the Colorado Springs area that I feel you should be aware of and that your readers should be warned of.

The situation I refer to is concerned with those unscrupulous, lecherous tom cats that prowl the Colorado Springs area nights, and even in the days in search of innocent, young kittens.

This problem facing us was driven home very strongly a few days ago when our beautiful, six-month-old kitten was raped before my wife's horrified eyes on the street outside our home. The "animal" committing this act was a large, evil looking yellow tom, origin unknown. The "beast" apparently planned more abuses because he attempted to keep my wife from rescuing our kitten by spitting and hissing and attempting to bite her as she approached.

We contemplate a paternity suit against the beast's family if we can only find out his name and where he lives. After all, he does owe our kitten something.

However, he has probably moved on to other innocents now and will continue his rampage until the citizenry rises up to stop this bestiality which is so prevalent in Colorado Springs. Let's make the streets of Colorado Springs safe for innocent, female kittens again!

This month's DDDD goes to that dreaded slip of paper that serves as a note to your Mother AOC. This terrible tool serves as a nifty method of camouflage. Dear Nomind,

Have viewed with interest your "constructive comments" as how to improve USAFA. Clever of you to use "Fairy Tales". Will implement your specific suggestions for improvement, if you ever make one!!!

Dear [redacted]philiac!

Get off my back!! Why don't you pick on Hitler, Stalin or even, Santa Claus?! What have I done to deserve this. Do I look like your Mother?
Amelia

Dear Pinko,

For a school of 4,000 you sure got nothing for a Mag. I pay good money to read about my sons school and all I get is whining about "free press!" Go to Berkly, you Commie, Or print some stuff on Mtn, climbing; Parachuting or good fiction. You never have good fiction! Redneck!

Mother

Retch!

KAFA can't be expected to go from non-existence to KLZ-FM quality in just a few months, but how come your Magazine isn't worth anything after so many years?

Severski (KAFA Head)

Dear Charlie Baby,

You equating yourself to some one really significant like "Bedcheck Charlie" or even, (GULP) Donald DoDo... is a neat trick, but it won't work. They draw their appeal from the minds of the Wing.

GIDDINGA LING

You may talk o' drinks in 'ere
When you're guzzlin' Arnie's beer,
An' eight ball and ping pong are your game;
But when it comes to marchin'
An' your dry throat is a parchin',
You'll be glad to get just water for the lame.
Now in AFA's sunny clime
Where I used to serve my time
Marchin' tours for 'Is Majesty the Comm,
Of all them blue suit crew
The meanest man I knew
Was the second group C.O., Giddinga Ling!
He was Ling! Ling! Ling!
You pingin' man o' blue, Giddinga Ling!
If cadets were sneakin' out
They could always hear his shout,
"Hey you man, stop an' face Giddinga Ling!"

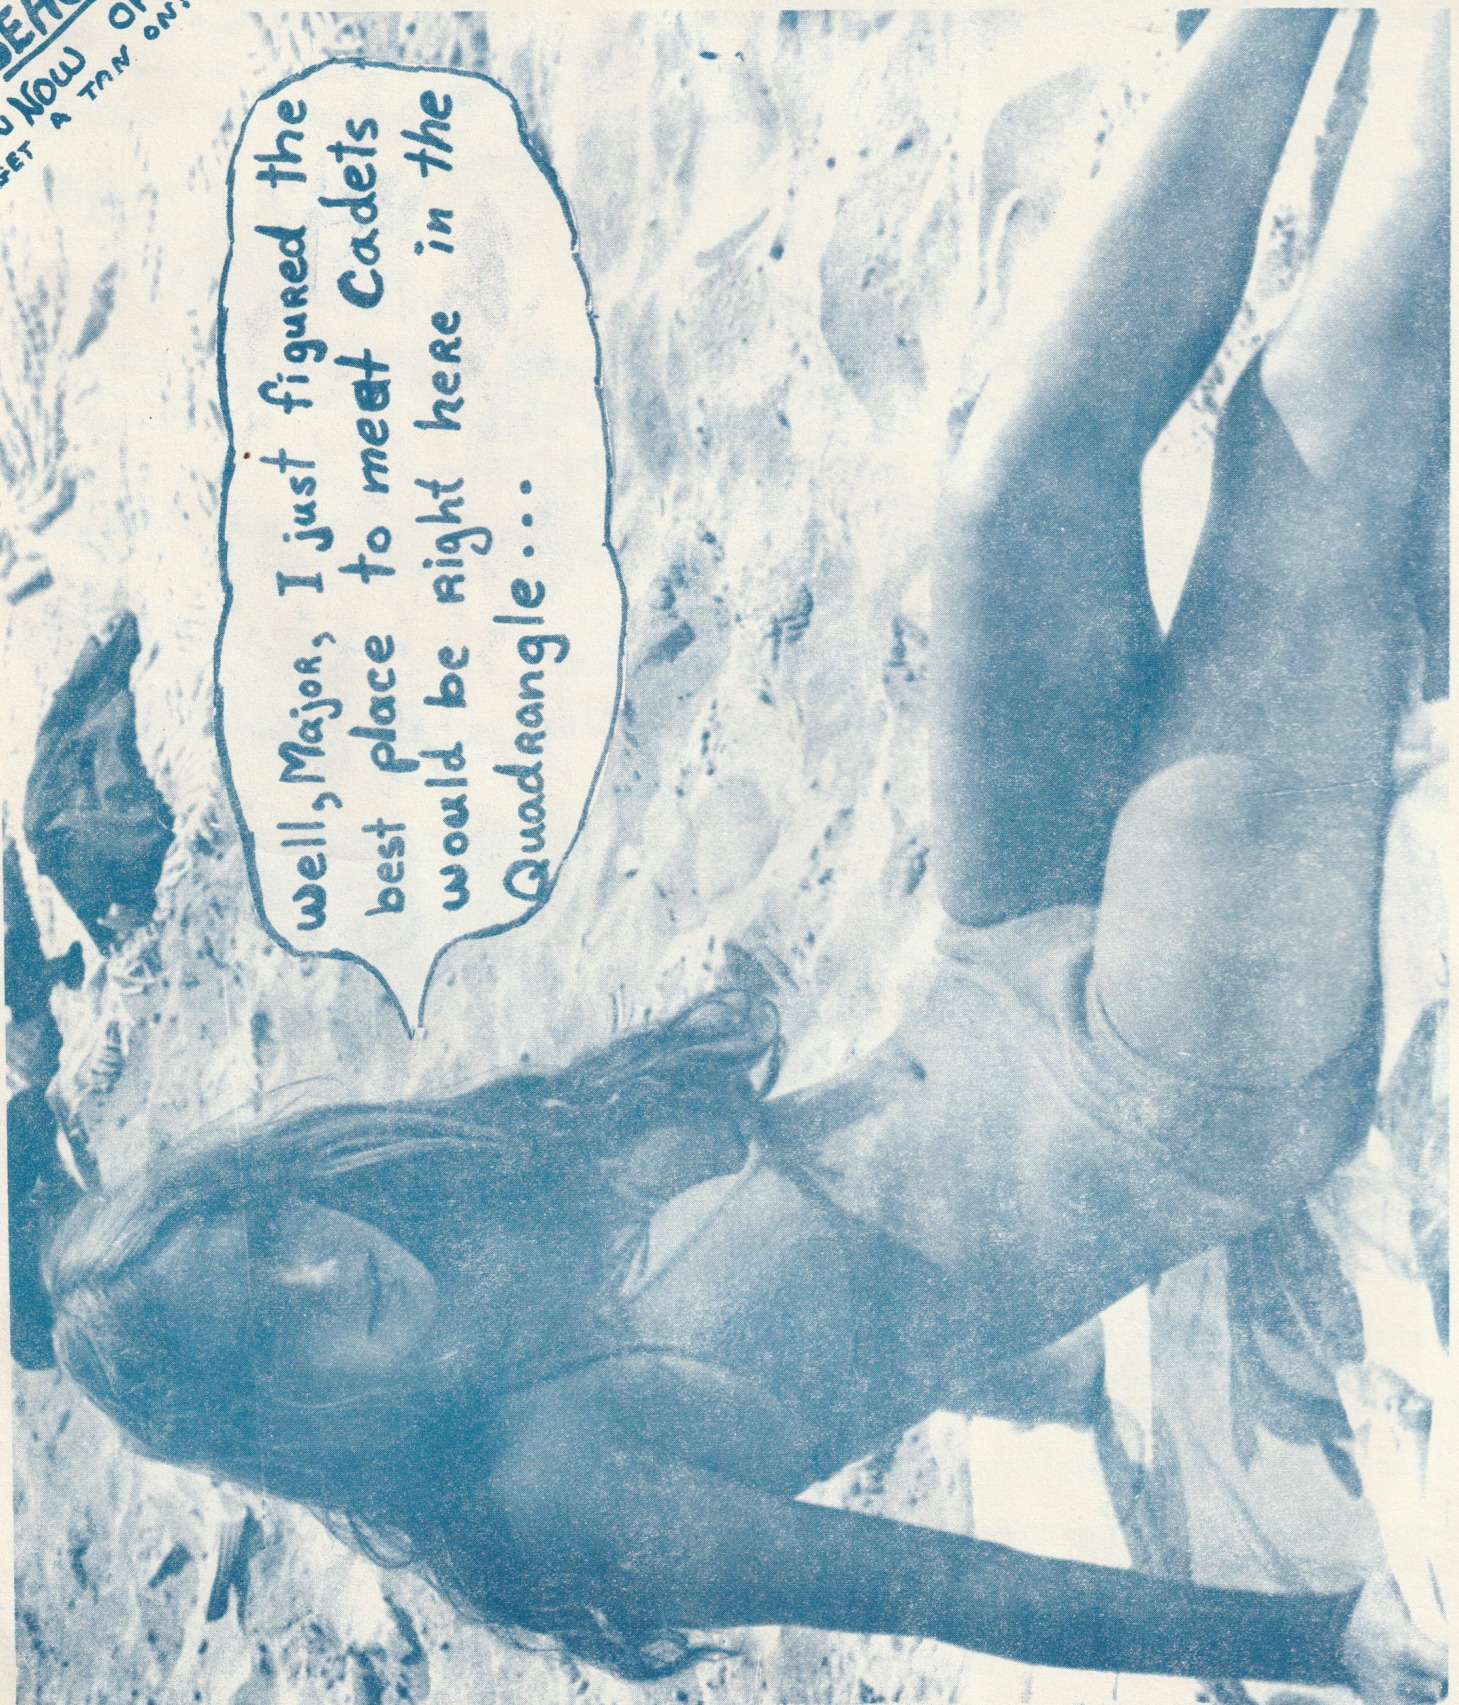

I sha'n't forgit the time
When I was marchin' mine
With an M-1 on my shoulder bearin' down.
I was chokin' mad from thirst
An' I thought my throat would burst
When from the BOR I heard a sound.
He brought us a canteen
An' I thought, "He's not so mean,"
But he filled it where the O-course ropes still swing.
It was brownish crawlin' slime
An' this one thought crossed my mind,
"It was you who put me here, Giddinga Ling!"
Yes, Ling! Ling! Ling!
I'm just a mere cadet with prop and wing;
Though I know that you outrank me
By the livin' Gawd that made me,
I'm a better man than you, Giddinga Ling!
